

Volumatic's CCI solution provides us with an end-to-end system for handling and banking cash in our stores.

The system is simple to implement, easy to use and provides us with concise reports which can be inputted easily into our existing cash management system.

Volumatic have provided a professional service at all levels throughout our dealings with them, from ensuring the product met our requirements to supporting stores with day to day queries.